

February 26, 2025

Contact: Tracey Erickson, Chair
Terickson1213@gmail.com

ACSA Future Leaders Program Launched!

After sitting in many meetings and hearing, "we need to get our young people involved" the American Council of Snowmobile Associations (ACSA) took action and created a young leader's program. This program is called ACSA future leaders program, broken into two groups:

- Next Gen National Riders (NGNR) which is a group of 21- to 30-year-old young adults that want to help and learn about snowmobiling on all levels; national, state and local.
- Trail Blazers are the younger adults from ages 16 to 20 who will be mentored by members within each state.

Applications are being accepted until March 1st for a volunteer coordinator.

<https://www.snowmobilers.org/docs/ACSA-Future-Leaders-Coordinator-Position-Application.pdf>

Applications to serve as the Next Gen National Rider Ambassador are now being accepted. Qualifications include being between the ages of 21-30, having leadership and communication skills, as well as a passion for the sport of snowmobiling. Must be a member of a snowmobile club and ACSA.

<https://www.snowmobilers.org/docs/next-gen-national-snowmobile-riders-application.pdf>

Sponsorship Opportunities: Financial contributions are needed to help these young and ambitious riders to travel to meetings such as the DC Fly-In and the ISC, as well as state meetings. Your financial contributions will help ACSA train young people for future leadership roles in our sport.

<https://www.snowmobilers.org/future-leaders.aspx>

You have heard all of the comments about getting younger people involved – we've created the program! Financial contributions can be made electronically through the QR code or link or by sending a check to ACSA and earmarking it for the Future Leaders Program. ACSA is a 501(C3) organization, so all contributions are tax deductible.