ACSA Future Leaders Program Rolling…Year TWO ACSA NGNR Applications OPEN!

The American Council of Snowmobile Associations (ACSA) acted and created a young leader's program. This program is called ACSA future leaders program and is now half way through its initial year. It is broken into two groups:

- Next Gen National Riders (NGNR)which is a group of 21- to 30-year-old young adults that want to help and learn about snowmobiling on all levels; national, state and local. Coordinator of the program is Lori Clark, from Wisconsin. She is successfully leading our two ACSA NGNR Ambassadors: Lynsey Burzinski, Wisconsin represents the Trails Region and Korbyn Shaw, Oregon represents the Mountain Region. Check out ACSA's Facebook page to learn more about them and their latest activities.
- Trail Blazers In Training (TBIT's) are the younger adults from ages 16 to 20 are mentored by members within each state. You will see these states and their respective programs at upcoming events such as the Trails and Mountain Region Roundtable gatherings and the International Snowmobile Congress in Nebraska this year, in addition, to their own state activities.

The next round of Applications to serve as the Next Gen National Rider Ambassador will be accepted from January 1st through March 18th, 2026. Qualifications include being between the ages of 21-30, having leadership and communication skills, as well as a passion for the sport of snowmobiling. Applicants must be a member of a snowmobile club and ACSA.
